Scripture Reading

1 John 3:11-18

(pg. 1022)

For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. We should not be like Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous. Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth.

Confessing Our Sin

Psalm 51:1-4, 9-10

(pg. 474)

*Have mercy on me, O God,
according to your steadfast love;
according to your abundant mercy
blot out my transgressions.*

Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity,
and cleanse me from my sin!

For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

Against you, you only, have I sinned
and done what is evil in your sight, so that you may be justified in your words and blameless in your judgment.

*Hide your face from my sins,
and blot out all my iniquities.*

Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and renew a right spirit within me.

Hearing Our Pardon

Acts 10:43

(pg. 919)

To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.
